

A HISTORY OF WHISKY IN AMERICA

*April 12, 2014
5:30pm to 8:30pm*

Home of the Lake County Historical Society

Join us on Saturday, April 12th for a whisky tasting with Steve Beal, Keeper of the Quaich, Senior Master of Whisky for DIAGEO, the world's larger producer of whisky, including Bulleit Bourbon & Rye, George Dickel Tennessee Whiskeys, Johnnie Walker Scotch and many more

- ★ Taste whiskies from distilleries popular during the Victorian and Stage Coach eras!
- ★ Learn the history of whisky in America.
- ★ Enjoy perfectly paired appetizers.
- ★ Support the new blacksmith shop!

Tickets are $75 per person and include whisky tasting and appetizers. Guests must purchase in advance by Sunday, March 30th. Seating is limited to 25.

Must be 21 to participate. Please drink responsibly.

Call 707.279.0493 for your tasting ticket!

For more information, check out elystagestop.com, www.facebook.com/elystagestop, or call 707.533.9990, during museum hours, Saturdays and Sundays from 11am to 3pm.

Support the Ely Stage Stop and Country Museum, preserving Lake County's past, present and future!

9921 Soda Bay Road, Kelseyville, California

TASTE THE PAST, SAVOR THE PRESENT